MONMOUTH COUNTY GRAVESTONES

Emley's Hill M. E. Churchyard
Upper Freehold Township

THIS BURIAL PLACE adjoins the Emley's Hill M.E. Church, which bears a marker inscribed: "Erected 1790. Burned & Rebuilt 1807. Present structure erected 1855. Erected as a memorial to Daniel Havens 1913." The cemetery may be reached by driving easterly 2.3 miles from the cemetery in Cream Ridge.

A partial copy of the gravestone inscriptions appears in Stillwell's Historical and Genealogical Miscellany 2:336. A complete copy of the cemetery by the Tombstone Hounds in August 1946 corrected certain errors in Stillwell's copy. The cemetery was checked on August 16, 1958, at which time the copy was updated from stones added in the intervening period.

The oldest dated stone is that of Julianna Cahill, who died in 1800. The cemetery contains several small groupings of stones bearing only initials. Two small stones between Margaret Chambers and Susan Ralph are inscribed
"H.I." and "R.I." Three stones in front of the John L. Stevens (d. 1937) plot are inscribed "M.E.B., Father," "A.H., Mother," and "B.H., Sister." Two crude, identical markers next to Raymond Bowker bear initials "N.R." and
"H.J."

Alcott, William E., 1867-1923; wife Ida Mae, 1873-1942; son "Baby Howard"
